Sunday After The Epiphany of the Lord
(First Sunday in Ordinary Time)

The Baptism of the Lord

Feast

Jesus Anointed and Consecrated by The Holy Spirit

Today's Gospel narrative, with its focus on Jesus' baptism represents what baptism means for Jesus and what it would entail for his followers. All who are baptized in Jesus' name enter fully into his life and go with him through the passage of his suffering and death to life everlasting.

Today's Bulletin is sponsored by the Hanzel Family in Thanksgiving to God.

ORIENTATION

As the baptized Jesus emerges from the waters of Jordan, God's voice declares, "You are my beloved son, with you I am well pleased," (Luke 3:22) revealing his true essence and identity. This is a remarkable reminder of the importance of our own Baptism as the sacrament that declares our own identity as members of the Body of Christ. Just as God declares the baptized Jesus to be his Son, in Baptism we become sons and daughters of God in Jesus Christ, and the Spirit of God descends on all of us to strengthen us in our Christian mission of love and service. Jesus Christ is baptized, not to receive forgiveness, but to reveal to us his identity and to show us the way to ours. -LTP

Poinsettias: The manger scene in the Church has been disassembled and the poinsettias have been placed at the back of church. Parishioners who contributed towards the Poinsettia Fund are welcome to take a poinsettia home after Mass. Please use care in removing the plants - pick up leaves that drop.

May they rest in peace.

REFLECTION

The Baptism of the Lord

The feast of the Baptism of the Lord marks the end of the Christmas season. Tomorrow we enter into Ordinary Time and hear the beginning of Christ's ministry on earth.

Today, however, we ponder Baptism – Christ's and our own. The scripture readings summarize the themes of the entire Advent-Christmas season. The voice announces the future events as associated with John the Baptist. The gospel passage from St. Luke moves us from looking forward to the coming of the Messiah to the fulfillment of God's promise.

Jesus's baptism by John clarifies the respective roles and identities of John and Jesus. John's role was preparatory and temporary. He offered the prelude to the promise that would be fulfilled by Jesus. As God's beloved Son and servant with whom God was well pleased, Jesus would exercise the role of Christ and baptize with Spirit and fire. After his baptism, Jesus' ministry began in earnest and John's came to an end (Luke 3:20).

Jesus would also allow himself to be immersed in the baptism of suffering and death. Through these saving actions, all who are baptized in Jesus' name enter fully into his life and his death.

LOOKING AHEAD LITURGICALLY

ORDINARY TIME CYCLE C

Each year of the three-year Liturgical Cycle, (A. B. C.) is dedicated to one of the synoptic Gospels, (Matthew, Mark and Luke). This year we are in Cycle C. We read from Luke's Gospel. Luke is an exquisite storyteller, with a keen eye for deep characters, pungent storylines, poignant ironies, and heartwarming endings. Luke's Gospel contains certain features that the other Gospel accounts omit or mention only in passing. Luke alone gives us the stories of Jesus' infancy narrative.

Overview of Ordinary Time During The Winter

On the First Sunday of Ordinary Time (that time in the Liturgical Year when we are not celebrating a special season like Advent, Christmas or Lent) we celebrate Jesus' baptism. After the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we continue the celebration of Ordinary Time. In these Sundays, we will witness the beginnings of Jesus' ministry. We will hear of the call to discipleship and the paradoxes and difficulties that will be encountered in the proclamation of the reign of God.

The Lectionary

The First Readings for these Sundays deal with "ordinary" life. On the Third Sunday, there is the liturgical assembly with a reading from the law of the Lord led by Ezra, the priest and scribe, after the return from exile. On the Fourth and Fifth Sundays, we hear of the call of the prophets Jeremiah, a very young man when called, and Isaiah, who received his call while worshipping in the Temple.

The Second Readings are from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, a community graced with many spiritual gifts. On the Second through Fourth Sundays, we hear Paul's instructions concerning the proper use of, and attitude toward, these gifts. The reading for the Fifth Sunday is the earliest account of the Resurrection of Christ from the dead.

The Gospels. On the Second Sunday we hear the Gospel of the wedding at Cana where Jesus changed water into wine – in St. John's Gospel, the first of the "signs" (miracles) that Jesus performed, manifesting his glory and power as the Son of God. The Third through Fifth Sundays we return to Luke chapters four and five, dealing with the beginning of Jesus' public ministry.
